The New Currency Wars

by Alan David 2/ 9 /2020.

This is Part 2 in an ongoing series of Articles on economic warfare: “The New Currency Wars”.

The history of economic warfare is likely as long or almost as long as there have been economies and economic systems in the world.

I can remember when I first heard the story of how the Rothschild's family became the first millionaires in the world, by feeding false information to the people of Europe about the battle of Wellington, which caused the stock market to crash, and then they bought up everything at rock bottom prices, & now they are purported by some to be the wealthiest family in the world. I have heard it said:

‘the Rothschild's ‘own everything’ but ‘their name is on nothing’.

This implies that everything is held in private secret trusts, under private secret agreements, under the right of privacy and private contract.

There was information circulating around the internet around 1999-2004 when the head of the Rothschild family ‘Baron Von Rothschild’, who purportedly lived in an old Castle in Europe, if my memory serves me well, had reportedly died; He was purported to have died in his 90’s, in the late 1990’s around 1997-1999 ?

His personal fortune (not the total fortune of the family Dynasty) was at that time said to be around 19 trillion dollars ! Certainly an incomprehensible sum of money for any individual to own & possess by themselves !

Some might say that is too fantastic to be true, it is more like a fantasy than reality, but my attitude is that I would not be surprised to find out that it is true, after all, they do not say 'the rich get richer, and the poor get poorer' for nothing. It is well known to be true !

Nor do they say that 90 percent of the wealth is owned by 1% of the people for nothing either !

I am sure you may have heard of 'the one percent'. The 'one percent' have been written about in more than one book, I am sure, but a very revealing one is titled "The Lords of Creation, The History of America's 1 Percent", by Frederick Lewis Allen, originally published in 1935. According to that book, in the decades following the Civil War in America, the unprecedented Corporate expansion that took place, was mostly in the hands of a few wealthy industrialists who exploited the economic system for all it was worth.

These men included the Rockefellers, Fords, Morgans, Vanderbilts, Carnegies, among others, who used the combination of foresight, ingenuity, ruthlessness, and last but not least, greed, to arrive at their wealthy and powerful status among the worlds social, commercial, industrial, elite !

It would seem these elements are in deed a formula that results in corruption, dishonesty, fraud, & theft, among other 'unlawful' enterprises, in order to ensure that they alone are 'in control' of the most effective methods of manipulating the economy of the whole country, & eventually the world; production, transportation, energy, & commerce; by which they are said to have 'created' the conditions for the stock market crash of 1929, which lead to the infamous 'great depression' which was the foundation and cause, or, we might want to say, the 'excuse' of the Governors of all the 'States of the Union' to issue Declarations of Banking Emergencies inside their individual states, in 1932, which in turn was followed by the decision of the former Assistant Secretary of the US Navy, Governor of the state of New York, & Wall Street Attorney, Franklin Delano Roosevelt, to run for the Office of President of the United States, in the year 1932 Anno Domini, giving speeches on how he would solve all the problems of America; the Banking and unemployment problems of the great depression, the problems caused by the prior dust bowl drought, poverty, & crime.

The solution Franklin Delano Roosevelt, also known as “F.D.R.”, proposed to the people on his campaign stumps, in his speeches to the public in 1932, was that he would seek ‘Extraordinary’ ‘Executive Emergency War Powers’ from the Congress, so he would have the same power, on the civil side of the Government, that he would have as ‘Commander in Chief’ of the Military, against an invading ‘Foreign Enemy’, so that he could wage a war on the Emergency, or the ‘emergencies’ inside the Domestic United States. !

This was seeking an expansion of the powers of the Executive Branch in the Presidency, outside the limits set out by the Founders in the U.S Constitution, by a Congressional Statute, even though in our system of Law you can not override, abridge, amend, repeal, revoke or change any Constitutional Provision by enacting a Statute to do so ! That is fundamental basic Organic Law under our ‘system’ of Government !

You have to follow the express procedure stated in the Constitution to change it !

Be all that as it may, it still did not stop Franklin Roosevelt and the Federal Congress, however, from proceeding to do just that, even though the US Supreme Court has clearly stated that an ‘Emergency’ can not be used as a basis to Violate the provisions of the US Constitution, and an “Emergency” does not add to the powers of the Government already expressed in the Federal Constitution !

This unprecedented situation, and circumstance was actually exposed by a US Senate Subcommittee in 1972, in a 600 + page report, which I have in my research archives.

The Senate Subcommittee actually cited from a book written by Rexford G. Tugwell, titled “The Enlargement of The Presidency”, in that report, wherein they expressly stated that Franklin Roosevelt had deceived the public in his speeches, saying that the extra emergency powers he was seeking would be temporary and would terminate when the emergency was over or in two years !

There was, in actuality, no such limit in the Statute issued by Congress, which was signed by said President, Franklin Roosevelt, into ‘Law’ in 1933 ! Thereby executing a massive Fraud upon the people which is ongoing today !

I have heard a recording of a Roosevelt speech played on television back in the 1970’s, when I lived in Redondo Beach California. At the time he said this, Roosevelt had been the Assistant Secretary of the Navy, thereafter, the Governor of the State of New York, and he was a Wall Street Bar Attorney, as well as a ‘Master Mason’ of the 32nd degree, of the Scottish Rite, a known powerful ‘Secret Society’.

Based on you can be sure he knew what it meant, even though those he was speaking to at the time, in the Public, likely did not know enough Constitutional Law to have any clue about it. He wanted enough independent power on the Civil side of the Government in his hands to be able to suspend Rights and Law, if they ever got in his way in carrying out his personal agenda, and the agenda of the Wall Street Bankers, and the Scottish Rite Masons. This is basically the power of a Civil Dictator, when no such power exists in the Federal Constitution for the President, or Executive Branch of the Federal Government of the USA !

In fact the US Supreme Court has Ruled in several published Decisions that an ‘Emergency’ does not give any power to the Government beyond what was expressed in the Constitution, & that the Constitution already has all the power necessary to deal with any emergency ! That being the case, then, why did Roosevelt & the Congress need to add extra emergency powers by statute to the Executive Branch ?

It is a very interesting question, which I will eventually be answering, in due time, so be sure, so stay tuned.

Roosevelt stated in a recorded speech that if the Congress of the United States had not taken any effective action in bringing the emergencies to an effective end, once he was elected he would go to Congress and request them to give him those powers which he would use to bring the emergencies to a swift and effective end. He further stated the powers would be only temporary, and would cease once the emergencies had ceased, or in two years.

Though Roosevelt had stated these powers would only be temporary, and would last only two years, until the emergency was over, the truth was stated by Roosevelt's 'brain truster', a man by the name of Rexford Tugwell, who wrote a book many years after Roosevelt was dead, titled:

'The Enlargement of the Presidency' where he stated that Roosevelt had deceived the public, when he told them these Extraordinary Executive Emergency War Powers would be temporary, ending after 2 years.

There was no such limitation when Congress passed the law & Roosevelt signed it into existence !

To this very day those powers are still being used to declare Executive Emergency Wars by Presidents of the United States, and to continue previously declared emergencies, which have no requirement of Congressional approval whatsoever !

It has been said that these 'special powers' given by Congress to the Executive Branch, made the President of the USA more powerful than any King in the history (known History) of the whole world !

Some of those Executive Emergency ‘Wars’ Declared in the past 87 years since 1933 by past Presidents of the USA include:

The War On Poverty; The War On Crime; The War on Drugs; & The War on Terrorism. You have likely heard of some of these, if not all of them, at some time or another in the past.

Now in the year 2020, according to Jeff Brown, and the New York Times, 4 Tech billionaires have declared war on the US Dollar , with the N.Y. Times saying: ‘Mark Zuckerberg is planning to launch a new technology, a separate competing financial system’. A separate, competing financial system ! ‘and he’s not alone’.....‘Amazon is close on his heels, Google is readying its own currency,...and ‘the Securities & Exchange Commission’, has said that, Apple too, is getting into the action .

According to Brown, They are saying that if all goes well, as planned, this could lead to a massive change to money as we know it, altering how people spend, save, & invest, ‘overnight’. Apparently financial institutions such as Fidelity Bank, TD Ameritrade, Goldman Sachs, are well aware of this pending change in the economic system, and are preparing for it.

And if they are aware, you can be sure others are also, even if they are not talking publicly about it, they must also be quietly making their own plans to deal with these changes.

Brown claims that he has been attending a number of private, and secret meetings, one of which was at a ‘secured’ location near the US Congress building, where briefings are given, about matters affecting National Security, which of course would include anything that threatens to affect or change the current prevailing economic system of the USA. Brown has stated, point blank that there are people in the Government of the USA that see this new coming crypto system as a real ‘threat’.

Below is a photo from Browns article, of a group of people in the ‘secured facility’ receiving a briefing, showing Brown sitting in the second row, with the red circle around him.

In my prior Article, Part one of this series, I stated on page 5:

“I was instantly skeptical, because being an expert on the so called ‘legal system’ and an expert on “Law”, including ‘Constitutional’ and ‘tax law’, I knew that if it was actually true that this ‘new’ ‘crypto currency’ was ‘untraceable’, and ‘could not be taxed’, the Federal Government, the International Bankers, and the people who ran the Internal Revenue Service & Income Taxing System, would change that situation to their favor and benefit, if there was any way in Heaven, Hell, or Earth to do so, and it was only a matter of time before they would be pursuing the matter, with all the resources available to them through the ‘United States’ ‘Federal Government’.

(emphasis added by me) I further stated on page 5:

“Needless to say, although I really liked the idea of an ‘untraceable crypto currency’, I never purchased any ‘Bitcoin’, because I did not want to get in the scope & cross hairs of the Federal Government & IRS, as someone who was involved in what they would surely try to label was some kind of tax evasion scheme, which might get me targeted even more than I might already be targeted by them” !

Since finishing that article and having it read on Youtube.com by Joe Baker on “The Remedy Report”, I have received information from Mr. Baker, who apparently was more than a little curious about my references to the NSA and their ‘Cyber Force’ re capability for Cyber Surveillance & Cyber Warfare, etc., and he did some followup research and has discovered that, in fact, the NSA did target Bitcoin and its participants for cyber surveillance ! This was stated in an article by Tyler Durden, dated Wed, 03/21/2018 – 02:30, which was titled:

“NSA Has Been Tracking Bitcoin Users Since 2013, New Snowden Documents Reveal”

I will not quote from the whole Article here, but will insert this excerpt which will suffice for my purposes in this Article, which is part 2 in an ongoing series. The author made the following disclosure: “In a blockbuster report published Tuesday in the Intercept, reporter Sam Biddle cited several documents included in the massive cache of stolen NSA documents that showed that the agency has been tracking bitcoin users since 2013, and has potentially been funneling some of this information to other federal agencies.

Or, as Biddle puts it, maybe the conspiracy theorists were right. It turns out the conspiracy theorists were onto something.

Classified documents provided by whistle blower Edward Snowden show that the National Security Agency indeed worked urgently to target Bitcoin users around the world - and wielded at least one mysterious source of information to "help track down senders and receivers of Bitcoins," according to a top-secret passage in an internal NSA report dating to March 2013.

The data source appears to have leveraged the NSA's ability to harvest and analyze raw, global internet traffic while also exploiting an unnamed software program that purported to offer anonymity to users, according to other documents.

Using its ability to siphon data directly from the fiber-optic cables, the NSA managed to develop a system for tracing transactions that went well beyond simple blockchain analysis.

The agency relied on a program called MONKEYROCKET, a sham Internet-anonymizing service that, according to the documents, was primarily deployed in Asia, Africa and South America with the intention of thwarting terrorists.

The documents indicate that "tracking down" Bitcoin users went well beyond closely examining Bitcoin's public transaction ledger, known as the Blockchain, where users are typically referred to through anonymous identifiers; the tracking may also have involved gathering intimate details of these users' computers.

The NSA collected some Bitcoin users' password information, internet activity, and a type of unique device identification number known as a MAC address, a March 29, 2013 NSA memo suggested. In the same document, analysts also discussed tracking internet users' internet addresses, network ports, and timestamps to identify "BITCOIN Targets."

The NSA's budding Bitcoin spy operation looks to have been enabled by its unparalleled ability to siphon traffic from the physical cable connections that form the internet and ferry its traffic around the planet.

As of 2013, the NSA's Bitcoin tracking was achieved through program code-named OAKSTAR, a collection of covert corporate partnerships enabling the agency to monitor communications, including by harvesting internet data as it traveled along fiber optic cables that undergird the internet.

Specifically, the NSA targeted Bitcoin through MONKEY ROCKET, a sub-program of OAKSTAR, which tapped network equipment to gather data from the Middle East, Europe, South America, and Asia, according to classified descriptions.

As of spring 2013, MONKEY ROCKET was "the sole source of SIGDEV for the BITCOIN Targets," the March 29, 2013 NSA report stated, using the term for signals intelligence development, "SIGDEV," to indicate the agency had no other way to surveil Bitcoin users.

The data obtained through MONKEY ROCKET is described in the documents as "full take" surveillance, meaning the entirety of data passing through a network was examined and at least some entire data sessions were stored for later analysis. Naturally, once the NSA got involved, the notion of anonymity, whether with bitcoin, or even some of the privacy-oriented coins like Zcash - was completely crushed.

Teeka Tiwari, an Investment analyst, and financial adviser says in a recent Article which I referred to in my 1st Article in this series said: “74 years after the historic agreement that made the U.S. Dollar the World Reserve Currency, a new “Bretton Woods” meeting is about to change everything....’ It could not only displace The Dollar, but also spawn the biggest profit opportunity since the end of World War II’.

According to Tiwari, such a meeting only takes place about once every century...And—if history is any guide—the secretive meeting that he says he attended “will reshape America for the next 100 years ”...

This is quite a bold and startling claim, to say the least, but in fact it does appear to be taking place ! In fact, moves to try to effect some kind of a change in the world economic system, or systems, have actually been attempted several times since 1944, previously, after the first meeting at ‘Bretton Woods’ “New Hampshire” United States Of America, took place near the end of World War 2.

If you are not aware of it, or you were not told anything about it in your high school history or economics classes, what took place at that original meeting, changed the economic history of the whole world, making the US Dollar the ‘World Reserve currency’, under the previously established ‘Federal Reserve Bank’ banking System established in the United States of America, back in 1913, and since expanded world wide into a global economic system, little known or comprehended by most people, no doubt.

When I did some research of my own I found that there is a Bank in Switzerland called the 'Bank of International Settlements' commonly referred to as 'BIS' an acronym, for the same name.

I found that they are the bank that purportedly manages & 'controls' all the Federal Reserve Banks in 48 countries, where all other banks are managed & 'controlled' by the Federal Reserve Banks in this vast world banking system not taught to you in your public fool system, I mean your 'public school system', LOL !

According to Teeka Tiwari, in the Article previously cited:

"This is a rapidly developing situation in which "Investors are dumping corporate debt at the highest rates in years...with Standard and Poor's warning that defaults may soon become so great we will be unable to ignore them"

"Insiders are pulling their money from U.S. investments in record numbers...with $23.9 billion withdrawn from U.S. funds... in just one week this year"

"a little known early detection system for financial markets operated by the Federal government flashed "red" and "orange" alerts for U.S. stock and credit markets" and "our government may already be taking action", as he says that Senators recently introduced a legislative enactment titled :

"The Currency Optimization, Innovation, and National Savings Act"

that he says 'seeks to begin removing large amounts of cash from the American financial system' Essentially this is "step 1" in the coming reform'

I found further information provided online from “Wikipedia” “The free encyclopedia”, in a segment titled ‘The ‘Bretton Woods System’ that shows a Graph in which is shown the Number of countries having a banking crisis in each year since 1800, further stating that ‘the dramatic feature of this graph’, is the absence of any banking crises during the period of the Bretton Woods agreement, 1945 to 1971.

In my way of looking at history and historical patterns this would indicate such ‘banking’ and ‘economic crises’ appear to be engineered by certain economic powers at selected times that are deemed to be the right time, or shall we say an auspicious occasion for the fulfillment of one of their coveted designs for the future they have planned for the rest of the world !

Is this current coming global ‘crypto currency’ another such ‘design’ right around the corner, that has been engineered while we all got caught up and distracted in the last 3 years of Political drama of Democrats vs Republicans, Globalist Liberals vs Nationalist Conservatives, Yada Yada Yada, bla bla bla.... recently winding down in an orchestrated Presidential impeachment going nowhere against independent Maverick Nationalist Billionaire President Donald John Trump, in the face of a coming new Presidential election and Congressional elections this year ? What better way to distract, divert, and misdirect our attention, while our involuntary economic future is being orchestrated right under our noses, via the coming ‘New Internet of things’, the new “global” world “Smart Grid”, where all new construction homes will be hooked into the satellite system with all dwelling inside devices connected to that eye in the sky system, whether you want it or not in the new Technocracy Agenda 21 world Governance in the 'New World Order' of the Governing Elite, including driver-less trucks and cars; the cars are already here and pretty well known, but what we do not commonly know is that 18 wheeler trucks are also here, being tested in a few areas one of which is Arizona. We also have AI delivery of packages straight to your door by Amazon AI bot machines on wheels in certain areas of the country including San Diego California, etc. We are on the cusp of revolutionary changes most people may not be aware of. In my next Article we will do a deep dive into what is coming around the corner, which includes at least 14 states in the USA that are planning a gold backed crypto currency, and separating from the current Federal Reserve monetary system, which, if it ever takes place and reaches completion will be a major disruption to say the least. I will also review several prior attempts at changing the original Bretton Woods global currency system in the past decades, which are little known and not talked about in the Public School history books we are given to fill us with the popular propaganda the corporate powers would like us to believe. I will also reveal some serious changes in the economic system in China, which is developing its own National Crypto Currency to go along with their already developed smart grid system, in the midst of their nation wide corona virus epidemic, which has been reported to be in 18 countries, threatening a world wide 'pandemic' that could affect us all and the whole world economy. Until next time stay tuned.
